

CHARGES ATTEMPTED ARSON.

A policeman came along in front of the 100 West street, Brooklyn, early today and found William Thompson, a man of 35, in a shanty nearby, in a ditch with a man describing himself as Theodore Nelson, twenty-six, of the 100 West street, Brooklyn. Nelson had a scalp wound, which he said came from Thompson's nightstick. Thompson said he looked out of the window of his shanty and saw Nelson pile brush and rubbish against the side and try to light it. After a surgeon from the Williamsburg Hospital had dressed Nelson's wound he was locked up in the dump station on a charge of attempted arson, which he denied.

WARD $11,000,000 TRANSIT CONTRACT VETOED BY BOARD

Public Service Commissioners Disapprove Rich Plum Given by Interborough.

The Public Service Commission this afternoon disapproved the contract between the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and Artemus Ward, calling for a payment of $11,000,000 during the next fifteen years for the new transit, advertising and vending machine privileges on the subway and elevated lines. It was estimated that Ward would make a profit of $5,000,000 on the contract.

The city took a decided interest in the proposed contract, because of its interest in the earnings of the subway, and it was repeatedly pointed out that within a few years the advertising privileges would be worth far more than the proposed rentals to be paid. Artemus Ward, who has had the concessions for a number of years, claims the right of renewal for five years. The last agreement and contract expired on Jan. 1, 1914.

The contract submitted called for a payment of $500,000 this year, and a gradually increasing amount until the year 1919, when $500,000 should become the fixed rental. Since 1906 the firm of Ward & Gow had had the concessions, paying $450,000 a year. It is believed that the rejection of the contract by the Commission will result in other bids being made by competitors, or a contract at a higher rate entered into by Artemus Ward and the Interborough.

At the same meeting to-day the Commission ratified the decision of the Appellate Court in ordering the Edison Company to strike out certain clauses in its contracts which called for exclusive service in its rate schedules.

STOCK MARKET BEGINS TO SHOW REAL SIGN OF LIFE

Between 3,000 and 4,000 Shares a Day Change Hands at July 30 Prices.

The members of the committee on the Clearing House of the New York Stock Exchange to-day reported another day of encouraging business in stocks, at closing prices of July 30.

A couple of weeks ago hardly any business was being done, but now the transactions, practically all in odd lots, are running between 2,000 and 4,000 shares a day, and as they represent investment purchases their volume is regarded as an encouraging indication of a restoration of confidence.

Dealings in bonds are relatively much larger than in stocks. On one day this week bonds to the amount of $1,500,000 were put through the Clearing House Committee.

MISS BURKHARDT QUIZZED ON DEALS SULLIVAN MADE

lition of the Joralemon Trust Company, assigned to himself the Temple Israel mortgage and other mortgages. Furthermore it is charged that he has collected the interest and part of the principal of the Temple Israel mortgage.

Payments at various times have reduced the mortgage to $1,500. Mr. Crosey has been told that these payments were made to Miss Burkhardt and that she also collected the interest and that checks show that the money went to Sullivan or some member of Sullivan's family.

Eliaz Ruderman of No. 408 Sutter avenue, Brownsville, manager of the Temple Israel, made the payments of interest and on the principal. RUDERMAN BRINGS BOOKS AND CHECKS.

Mr. Ruderman appeared at the District Attorney's office to-day under subpoena to go before the Grand Jury and was scheduled as the second witness. He had with him books, records, cancelled checks and other documentary evidence. First witness called to-day was William Watson of Yonkers, who served as Warden McCormick's confidential secretary and bought the mysterious Nine King automobile.

Awaiting call was John J. Malloy, Superintendent of Industries in Sing Sing Prison, who spent a few days in jail last week for refusing to answer questions put by the Grand Jury.

They were called to give evidence in connection with an attempt Mr. Crosey is making to establish that Sullivan's money paid for the car.

Watson was before the Grand Jury for nearly three hours. He was succeeded by Ruderman, who, it was discovered, could not understand questions in English. He was excused until Monday, when a Yiddish interpreter will help him.

Miss Burkhardt was before the Grand Jury about half an hour. She was subpoenaed to appear again at 10 A. M. Monday and to bring certain documents.

This closed the investigation for the week. Mr. Crosey expressed himself as satisfied with what he had learned.

It takes lots of good common sense to keep house. And that's why only common-sense reasons appeal to the woman who is looking for ways to make her work easy. There is a way. It's the Fels-Naptha way.

Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water instantly dissolves grease. It will take out stains—even stubborn bloodstains. It's much cheaper, quicker and more convenient than sending rugs, carpets or clothes to the cleaner—and it does just as good work.

Fels-Naptha makes hard work easy, and does in less than half the time the work it used to take hours to get out of the way.

Anty Drudge Hates to Have the Children Punished

Mrs. Healy—"Come in, Anty Drudge—and don't notice Mary and Jimmie. I just whipped them for spilling a bottle of milk on my new dining-room rug. It's ruined."

Anty Drudge—"You are a foolish woman. I'm sure it was an accident, and you'd better have sent the children to the store for Fels-Naptha Soap. If you had it in the house, you'd know it would take the grease right straight out of your rug, without hurting it in the least."

Better Buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.
